Foundation Background:

Tujenge Africa Foundation launched in 2015 from the belief that access to quality education—grounded in peace-building, inter-ethnic reconciliation, and civic leadership—could single-handedly change the trajectory of post-conflict states in Africa. Founded by visionaries Wendell Adjetey and Etienne Mashuli, two men who made the improbable journey from civil war, genocide, military dictatorships and abject poverty in sub-Saharan Africa to Ivy League degree programs, Tujenge Africa Foundation is expanding the opportunities for academically gifted and disadvantaged youth.

The Foundation currently operates in Burundi, where a history of civil war, genocide, bloodshed, and international neglect has hindered economic growth, ultimately driving its status as the poorest country in the world.

In addition to its flagship Tujenge Scholars Program, Tujenge initiatives include a primary school assistance fund for the highly-marginalized Batwa group, and still-nascent innovation lab and research institute projects.

Academic Program:

The Scholars Program curriculum is designed to balance five different academic objectives (in order of priority):

- Peacebuilding through dialogue
- Redefining ethical leadership
- Establishing English proficiency
- University preparation and critical thinking skills
- University access

The 18-month curriculum is split into four terms:

Term 1: Foundation (16 weeks)

Admission Process for Scholars Program:

- Selection is holistic. Criteria: academic excellence, leadership and community engagement, innovation, creativity, vision, tenacity, grit, English proficiency.
- Scholars are selected to create a diverse microcosm of Burundian society in the classroom.
- Initial written application includes biographical info, high school transcripts, national exam results, 3 essays in English, and a letter of recommendation.
- 50 finalists are selected for a 3-day event that includes 15-minute interviews with a faculty panel, an English and math exam, and a dinner event.

Country and School Context:

- Primary & secondary school is conducted in French.
- Primary: 6 yrs; lower secondary: 4 yrs; upper secondary: 3 yrs
- English is taught as a foreign language in secondary school by largely unqualified teachers.
- Primary school completion rate is 60% of population; secondary completion is 30%; just 5% start university.
- “Official” exchange rates for Burundi’s currency significantly over-represent purchasing power. As of 10/1/19, the “real” rate was approx. BIF 3,000 to $1.00.

Grades and Test Results in Burundi:

School Grades

- Students are graded on a year-by-year percentage-based system; no multi-year GPA is calculated.
- Equivalent grades in Burundi are much lower than in the US; the 2018 median grade was approx. 56%.
- Middle 50% in 2018 was approx. 52%-61%.
- Anything less than 55% is considered failing and requires repetition of an exam or the entire grade; typical class repetition rates are between 5% and 10%.
- Scores higher than 70% are considered stellar.
- Scores between different specialization tracks should be considered equivalent.

Class Rank

- Class rank is assigned within each specialization track, with somewhere between 10 and 50 students per track per school.
- A select number of schools in Burundi (both public and private) function as “elite institutions” with admission based on test results. In these cases, class rank may not be a useful metric.

National Exam

- A state-administered exam, tailored to each specialization track, is taken by all graduating students following completion of their final year of secondary school.
- Scores higher than 50% are considered “passing” and qualify a student to study at national universities.

2018 National Exam Statistics:

EXAM SCORE	PERCENTILE
	Economics	Letters	Science A	Science B
50%	35.2%	79.6%	18.7%	65.7%
